The poppy kissed with blight
The cactus blooming once a year
In the Arizona night

The rarest of the tulips
Made a lot of Dutchmen paupers
While the seeds of grief and ignorance
Came up in rows of daughters

The lilies and bluebonnets
Pale and wilted in the heat
A wisp of song the poet plucked
To lay at Lucy's feet

"A violet by a mossy stone
Half hidden from the eye
Fair as a star when only one
Is shining in the sky"

G D A Bm
When we made and broke those foolish promises

F# Bm A
Anna, were we victims or accomplices?

Your skillet caught his jaw and put him on the floor

Should I play the doctor or the troubadour?

I Hear Them All

Old Crow Medicine Show

Key: A (G)

Capo 2

capo2

Verse

I hear the crying of the hungry in the deserts where they're wandering
Hear they're crying out for heaven's own benevolence upon them
Hear destructive power prevailing, I hear fools falsely hailing
To the crooked wits of tyrants when they call

Chorus

I hear them all, I hear the all, I hear them all

Verse

I hear the sounds of tearing pages and the roar of burning paper
All the crimes and acquisition turn to air and ashen vapor
And the rattle of the shackle far beyond emancipator
And the lowliest who gather in their stalls

Chorus

I hear them all, I hear the all, I hear them all

Harmonica Solo (verse & chorus progression)

Verse

So while you sit and whistle dixie with your money and your power
I can hear the flowers a-growing in the rubble of the towers
I hear leaders quit their lying, I hear babies quit their crying
I hear soldiers quit their dying one and all

Chorus

I hear them all, I hear the all, I hear them all

Harmonica Solo (verse & chorus progression)

Verse

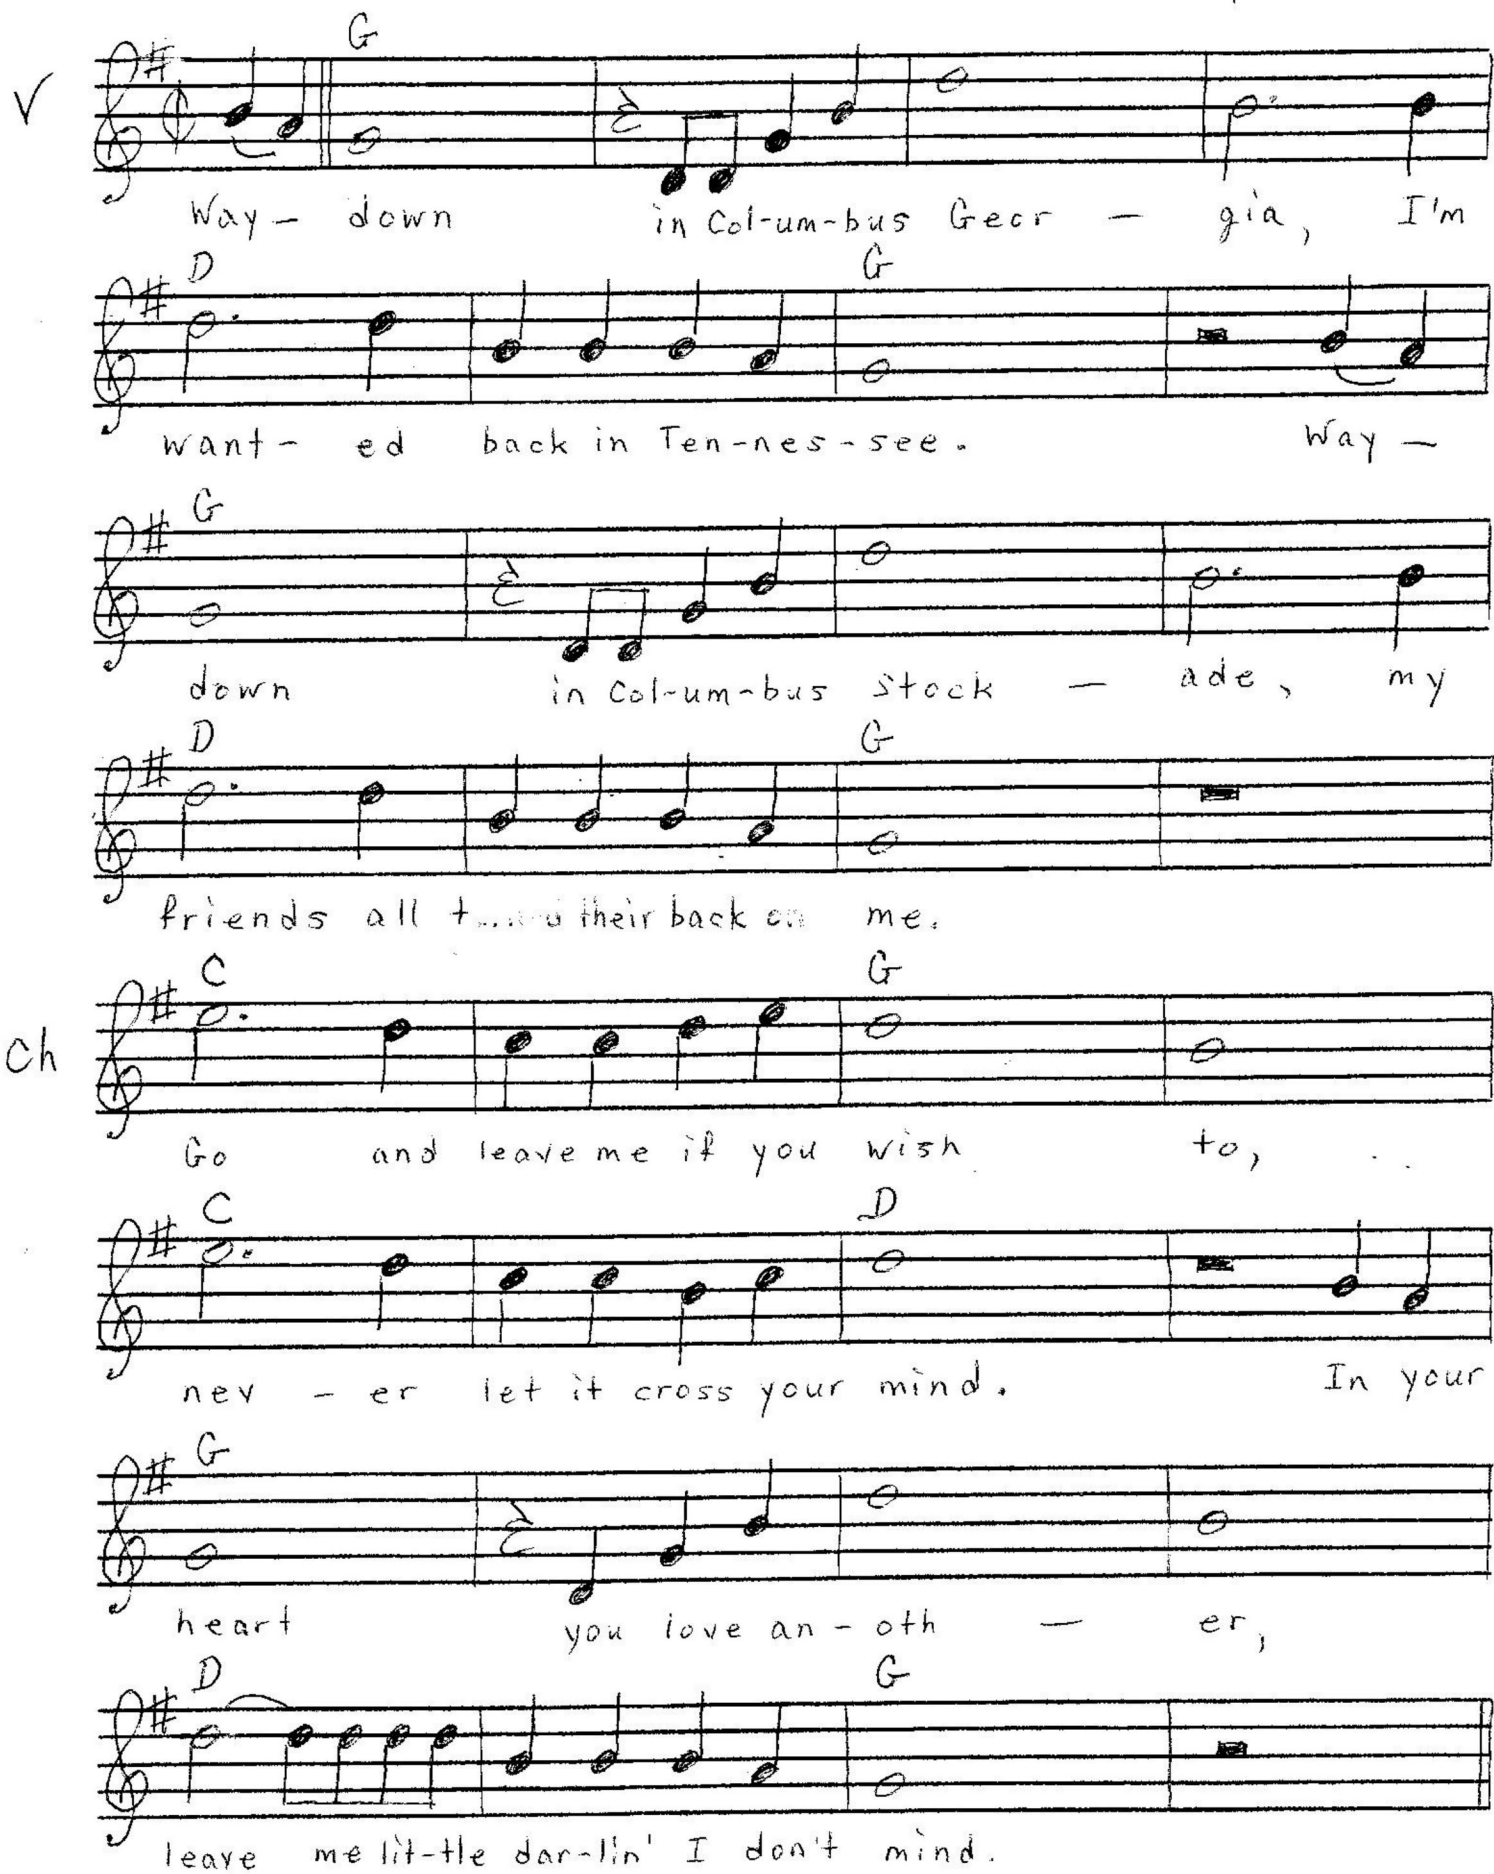

I hear the tender words from Zion, I hear Noah's waterfall
Hear the gentle lamb of Judah sleeping at the feet of Buddha
And the prophets from Elijah to the old Paiute Wovoka
Take their places at the table when they're called

Chorus

I hear them all, I hear the all, I hear them all
I hear them all, I hear the all, I hear them all... (raise vocal pitch)
I hear them all, I hear the all, I hear them all...
